Interviewing Skills

Our Career Advisors can offer you tips and strategies on how to give a winning interview!

- Develop confidence with opportunities to practice, using different interviewing styles
- Learn tips to improve your interview skills and tips for effective follow-up techniques

Dressing for Success

Our Career Advisors offer guidance on understanding how your dress contributes to your brand and impacts success.

- Learn how to present yourself professionally, what to wear vs. what not to wear, how to dress properly for interviews and while on the job
- Gain understanding of how others may see you and how that image can impact your employment

Resumé Assistance

Allow your resumé to serve as a marketing tool to market YOU!

Ask our Career Advisors to assist with:

- Tailoring your resumé to the job/career you want, to get the employer's attention
- What to include, exclude, or enhance on the resumé and how to customize per employer

ADVANCING YOUR CAREER

CAREER PATHWAYS

Career Pathways is an integrated collection of regional and local programs and services connecting youth and adults to the workforce through education and training for highly skilled careers in high demand industries.

NCWorks Career Advisors and school counselors can steer students and adults in the direction they need to follow for a pathway in a field that has a high demand for jobs. Pathways include:

- Healthcare
- Advanced Manufacturing
- Agriscience & Biotechnology
- Business Support Services

The websites nenccareerpathways.org and nccertifiedcareerpathways.com have more information.

TRAINING SERVICES

Opportunities may be available for career development through various local, state, and federally funded training programs to eligible job seekers interested in earning an associate's degree, certificate or diploma or making a career change.

- Obtain career exploration, guidance, counseling and planning toward self-sustaining employment
- Receive financial assistance with expenses associated with obtaining credentials, skills and education that can be obtained in the classroom or through work-based learning
- Assistance with tuition, books, travel expenses, childcare, testing fees and supplies
- Gain the skills needed to go from minimum-wage employment to livable-wage employment
- Obtain the skills needed to retain employment

WORKING SMART CLASSES

Ask a Career Advisor how a free soft skills class may benefit you. Working Smart is an interactive soft skills curriculum designed to provide the work and life skills needed to enhance employee productivity.

- Take any or all of the five-module course consisting of lessons about Self Awareness, Self-Management, Work Ethics, Communication Skills and Problem Solving. After course completion, individuals are awarded a certificate of completion and are eligible for a letter of recommendation to employers based on participation
- Enhance your resumé by showing potential employers your initiative to improve work readiness skills

Call the NCWorks Career Center near you to find out which tests are offered and to make an appointment. For more information and to sign up for this course, contact your local NCWorks Career Center.

PROVE YOUR SKILLS TO EMPLOYERS

When applying for a job, you may be required to demonstrate your knowledge of basic occupational skills. The NCWorks Career Center offers free pre-employability tools that can help:

Every occupation has an assessment for you to prove your skills:

- Office Skills, Data Entry, Typing
- Telephone Etiquette
- Cash Handling
- QuickBooks
- Basic Warehouse Knowledge
- Assembly and Matching
- Over 1,500 Tests Available!

Call the NCWorks Career Center near you to find out which tests are offered and to make an appointment.

ACT WORKKEYS NATIONAL CAREER READINESS CERTIFICATE (CRC)[®]
